

Workplace Safety & Hazard Identification 2009

Workplace Safety and Hazard Identification

497: Level = 1 Credit = 3 Version = 7
 17602: Level = 3 Credit = 4 Version = 2

This one day course covers the NZQA Unit Standard 497 “Demonstrate knowledge of workplace health and safety requirements” and 17602 “Apply hazard identification and risk assessment procedures in the workplace ”

Course Content

- Legislative rights and responsibilities for workplace health and safety
- Systems approach to workplace health and safety
- Hazards—physical, chemical, biological, ergonomic, physiological
- Identification of hazards
- Health and safety requirements for hazard control
- Hazard control methods
- Applying recognised risk assessment procedures
- Hazard control and contingencies

Who Should Attend

Health & Safety Reps, Health & Safety Committee members, Supervisors, Managers, or anyone responsible for workplace health and safety.

Date 1 day
Times 8.30—4.30
Venue Aoraki Polytechnic
 Arthur Street
 Timaru

Investment $210 (inc gst)*

*Discounted prices for NZ Citizens (with verification) and where no ITO subsidy is involved. Otherwise full costs apply.

Additional NZQA Costs

There will be an additional charge of $1.55 per credit for the registration of credits onto the NZQA framework (total of 7 credits).

Cancellation Policy

Should an employee be unable to attend, a substitute is welcome at no extra cost. Regrettably no refund can be made if the cancellation of a registration is less than 5 working days prior to the start of a course.

Disclaimer

Aoraki Polytechnic reserves the right to alter the course start dates or amend course content as required. Commencement is subject to sufficient enrolments.

Hazard Identification & Risk Assessment Procedures 2009 - Course Application

Name _____

Date of Birth _____

Company Name _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____

Work e-mail _____

Postal Address _____

Arthur Street
 Private Bag 902
 TIMARU 7940

Phone: (03) 684 0886
 Cell: 027 259 7843
 Fax: (03) 684 0867
 Email: trish.terpstra@aoraki.ac.nz