In 2011 Caroline Dickson was awarded a medal for achieving the highest exam mark in the world for City and Guilds.

After six years working as cabin crew for an airline in Britain, Mrs Dickson decided last year that it was time for a change. Both her children were at primary school so she felt it was a good time to re-educate. She sat a two-hour written exam in June and found out this year that she would be presented with the City and Guilds international medal for excellence for receiving the highest mark in the world for that exam. Only one medal is awarded per qualification level around the world by City and Guilds, which is Britain's leading provider of vocational qualifications. It has been operating since 1878 and has more than 8500 centres in around 100 countries.

"I have to give credit to my tutor Heleen Craig, she is very supportive has an abundance of knowledge and without her I wouldn't have achieved such a great result last year.

Caroline now works at the Chandler Clinic in Timaru as a beauty therapist and skin consultant."

STUDENT PROFILE

Rochelle Lensley
Certificate in Hairdressing

Making the move from South Africa to New Zealand in 2009, Rochelle always had an interest in becoming a hairdresser.

Rochelle completed a Certificate in Hairdressing at Aoraki Polytechnic in 2010 and now works at Goldfingers

Hair & Makeup in Timaru. "I am continuing with my apprenticeship at Goldfingers Hair & Makeup while coming to Aoraki every Monday to continue studying my second year of hairdressing. It's the best of both worlds, I get paid and gain experience while I continue to toward being qualified."

Rochelle looked at the option of starting her apprenticeship with a salon or studying the equivalent with Aoraki. "I am really glad I decided to do the first year full time at Aoraki, I would recommend others to do it; it gives you an advantage to gain an apprenticeship and learn the fundamentals of hairdressing before you deal with public. The salon at Aoraki is just like a real salon anyway – with more flexibility to make mistakes and gain one-on-one training from the tutors."

Rochelle is excited with the prospect of a career in Hairdressing. "I like that it's a very mobile profession, I would definitely like finish my apprenticeship and work my way up in the industry first, but it's good to know I can take my skills and knowledge in hairdressing around the world."

"I am really glad I decided to do the first year full time at Aoraki, I would recommend others."
